

Dipping Parsley

Contributed by Mordechai Liebling

Source: original

Traditionally we have interpreted the salt water used for dipping as the tears of our ancestors. Perhaps this year as we dip the greens into the salt water, we will understand it as the tears of the earth. In the Exodus story the liberation begins when God hears the cry of the Hebrew slaves, let us hear and taste the cry of the earth. . This moment requires that we hear the cry of the earth itself