5772 חספ – Trivia Questions

RULES

1. Only the “kids” are the questioners.
2. Each questioner gets to ask the same number of questions.
3. Questions can only be asked after a section of the Seder is completed and before the next section is announced; but only one question per section per questioner may be asked.
4. If a question is answered correctly, one piece of candy is awarded to the questioner.
5. If it is answered incorrectly, the questioner gets two pieces of candy.
6. The Seder leader has the final decision about “correctness.”
7. Each questioner selects one person to ask a question to, but the same person cannot be asked to answer a question until all answerers have been asked the same number of questions.
8. The “bonus” question must be asked last.
9. If the bonus question is answered correctly, then all of the remaining candy can be split equally among the questioners.
