This chant is intended to focus our attention on each of the four cups of wine during the Passover seder. As you pour each cup, chant the following words from Psalm 23 – "Kosi R'vayah," translated as "my cup runneth over" or "my cup is overflowing." The brimming cups and music create a beautiful sederritual.

You can learn the three parts of this chant by listening to them separately and together or Ritualwell.org.

Kosi R'vayah is available on the Chanscendence CD by Rabbi Shefa Gold.
