Let us continue our seder by eating one last little piece of matsah to leave us with the taste of freedom's struggles.

[Everyone eat a last piece of matsah.]

Now, let us conclude our seder.

Everyone:

We have recalled struggles against slavery and injustice.

We have sung of freedom and peace.

We revisited times of persecution and times of fulfillment.

Only half a century ago, Nazis committed the crimes of the Holocaust.

Today, as Jews in the United States, we are more free than at any other time.

Yet Jewish history shows that life is ever-changing, and we must learn how to survive under all conditions.

When we are persecuted, we must struggle for our own freedom.

The more freedom we attain,
the more we must help others attain freedom.

This is the lesson of Passover. This is why we celebrate the Festival of Freedom.
