Chaverim,

Why is this haggadah different from all others?

Because this haggadah holds the true meaning of Pesach—That freedom and justice are the centrepiece of our religion. Chaverim this Pesach I urge you to remember that until the whole world is free, none of us are free.

Let this Seder be the start of a journey for each of us, together as a movement, to pursue justice, liberating the world from oppression based on race, class, gender, sexuality or any other.
