

Ein Gedi

Contributed by Leslie Klein

Source:

In washing our hands, we symbolically cleanse ourselves of the year that was and prepare for the year to come. Let us now think of one part of last year we would like to leave behind, and one hope for the year to come.

Let us also take a moment to think about the brave women and men who stood up to those in power or are doing so today.