Deuteronomy 6: 20-23 says, "And it shall come to pass that your child will ask you, "What do you mean by this service?" And you shall tell him: "With a mighty hand, God took us out of Egypt...""

We are now ready to retell the story of our great redemption from slavery in Egypt. We cannot eat our Seder meal until the story of how we obtained our freedom is retold to our children with joy and gratitude.
