Recline right back and you'll hear a tale, a tale of a fateful trip that started many years ago in old, ancient Egypt

The Jews were forced to work as slaves, they suffered that ordeal

We celebrate their Exodus with a three hour meal, a three hour meal!

The Pharoah was an evil dude, his wrath would not relent

If not for the effort of the fearless Jews... we'd all be keeping Lent (2x)

They landed in the desert after parting the Red Sea

With Moses, and Aaron too, each Israelite and his wife

A movie star, the Professor, and Miriam... here on Passover night!
