In pairs find as many of the following items as you can:

Water, or a sign of water

Something educational

Something round

Something fluffy

Something that Miriam could have used to weave a basket for baby Moshe

Something that an ancient Egyptian would find peculiar

Something growing on something else

Something really cool

Something with a strong smell

Something that the Israelites would need to build a fire in the wilderness

Something that the Israelites should have taken with them to help them in the desert

Something that reminds you of matzah
