

Dipping the parsley

Contributed by Craig Minoff

Source:

We now take a vegetable, representing our joy at the dawning of spring after our long, cold winter.

We now dip it into salt water, a symbol of the tears our ancestors shed as slaves.