

Elijah

Contributed by Sarah Remes

Source:

Tonight we welcome and remember family and friends, for we are commanded, “from generation to generation, each of us is obligated to see ourselves as though we personally had just been freed from slavery.”

To recognize that we all must contribute to liberation, each participant pours some of his or her wine into Elijah’s cup.

Open the door to symbolically welcome Elijah