The Golden Rule

That nature only is good when it shall not do unto another whatever is not good for it's own self.

What is hateful to you, do not do to
your fellow man.
That is the entire Law; all the rest is commentary.

Blessed is he who prefers his brother before himself.

Hurt not others with that which pains
yourself.

This is the sum of duty:
do naught to others that which if done to thee
would cause pain.

No one of you is a believer until he desires for his brother what he desires for himself.

Do unto others as you would have them do
unto you.
