Wise - Tonight why don't we make twice as much food and donate to those who cannot afford a cedar of their own?

Wicked - Why do we even care about others? If we can afford a seder, who cares about those poor people who cannot afford a cedar?

Simple - What is a poor person?

Don't know how to ask questions - continues to eat while nodding.

In which one does god favor?

God favors the wicked, because through the wicked's questions we can educate ourselves more about the topic to answer his questions.
