

Four Children

Contributed by Milken School Global Beit Midrash

Source:

Labels can be helpful because they create organization and a system. However, labels are typically hurtful because they also have the ability to create a dehumanizing hierarchy, classifying certain groups as “higher” or more superior than others. When people are labeled, it creates a separation between what is accepted by society and what is considered “different” or “abnormal.”

Melissa S., Los Angeles

#globalbeitmidrash

#globalteenagershaggadah