(to the tune of "Just a Spoon Full of Sugar")

Oh, back in Egypt long ago, the Jews were slaves under Pharaoh
They sweated and toiled and labored through the day
So when we gather pesach night, we do what we think right Maror, we chew, to feel what they went through

Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down, the bitter herbs go down; the bitter herbs go down
Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
In the most disguising way

So after years of slavery, they saw no chance of being free
Their suffering was the only life they know But baby Moses grew up tall, and said he'd save them all He did, and yet, we swear we won't forget that...

Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
the bitter herbs go down; the bitter herbs go down
Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
In the most disguising way

While the maror is being passed, we all refill our water glass,
Preparing for the taste that turns us red Although maror seems full of minuses, it sure does clear our sinuses
But, what's to do? It's hard to be a Jew!

Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
the bitter herbs go down; the bitter herbs go down
Just a tad of charoset helps the bitter herbs go down,
