"Why is this night different from all other nights?" Because it reminds us of another night, so long ago, yet so near, the last night a persecuted and oppressed people, our people spent in Egypt. "Why do we eat bitter herbs?" To remind us of the bitter tears we wept as slaves, in exile. ... So many questions, Listen as our seder begins to find the answers. Each song, each gesture, each cup of wine, each prayer, each silence is part of tonight's spell. The goal is to arouse our curiosity .
