Miriam's Song

Chorus

(A) And the (Em7) women (G) dancing with their (A) timbrels,
(A) Followed (Em7) Miriam as (G) she sang her (A) song,
(A) Sing a (Em7) song to the (G) One whom we've (A) exalted,
(Em7) Miriam and the (A) women (Em7) danced the whole night (A) long

(A) And Miriam was a (Em7) weaver of unique (A) variety
(Em7) The tapestry she (A) wove was (Em7) one which sang our (A) history.
(A) With every strand and (Em7) every thread she crafted her (A) delight!
(Em7) A woman touched with (A) spirit, she (Em7) dances toward the (A) light

Repeat Chorus

(A) When Miriam stood upon the shores and (Em7) gazed across the (A) sea
(Em7) The wonder of this (A) miracle she soon (Em7) came to (A) believe.
(A) Whoever thought the (Em7) sea would part with an outstretched (A) hand
(Em7) And we would pass to (A) freedom (Em7) and march to the promised (A) land!

Repeat Chorus

(A) And Miriam the (Em7) prophet took her timbrel in her (A) hand,
(Em7) and all the women (A) followed her (Em7) just as she had (A) planned,
(A) and Miriam raised her (Em7) voice in song, She sang with praise and (A) might
(Em7) We've just lived through a (A) miracle (yelled): (Em7) We're going to dance (A) tonight!!

Repeat Chorus x2
