Dayenu means enough. In the traditional seder, it's a way to sing about how just one of the things that led to our freedom had happened, it would have been enough. Create your own version of Dayenu about our current administration.

If he had only lied about climate change... it would have been enough

If he had only appointed racists and conspiracy theorists...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

f he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

f he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

If he had only _____
...it would have been enough

Then call your representatives and leave a message telling them we've had enough, and demand impeachment.

(You can also leave them a singing message!)
