We now refill our wine glasses one last time and open the front door to invite the prophet Elijah to join our seder. In the Bible, Elijah was a fierce defender of God to a disbelieving people. At the end of his life, rather than dying, he was whisked away to heaven. Tradition holds that he will return in advance of messianic days to herald a new era of peace, so we set a place for Elijah at many joyous, hopeful Jewish occasions, such as a baby's bris and the Passover seder.

אליהו הנביא, אליהו התשבי,

אליהו הגלעדי.

במהרה בימנו יבוא אלינו

עם מְשִׁיחַ עִם מְשִׁיחַ בֶּן דָּוִד,

עם מְשִׁיחַ עִם מְשִׁיחַ בֶּן דָּוִד.

Eliyahu hanavi Eliyahu hatishbi Eliyahu hagiladi

Bimheirah b'yameinu, yavo eileinu

Im mashiach, Im mashiach ben-David,

Im mashiach, Im mashiach ben-David -- ooh.

Elijah yeah yeah yeah (x3)

Elijah the prophet, the returning, the man of Gilad: return to us speedily, in our days with the messiah, son of David.
