In our Jewish Mexican family, we honor more than just the struggle of our ancestors journey from mitsrayim to libertad but also the gifts they gave us and the tools to survive any conditions and to always make it delicious.

We have a Chile on our seder plate to honor the abuelas, the bisabuelas, the chignonas, the curandras, and other femme Moshes, Miriams, Tziporahs and Aarons in our lives who taught us who we are, how to be, integridad (integrity) and did it all while raising families, working for opportunity, embodying hod (humility,) crying, embracing, celebrating, kicking ass and declaring "Huelga!" in the face of oppression.
