

Assimilation and Identity

Contributed by Nate Auerbach

Source: A Different Night Haggadah

"Israel (Jacob) descended to Egypt, resided there in small numbers, and became a great nation—great and powerful and numerous."

"They persecuted us... They imposed hard labor on us."

How does a minority preserve its identity? What of our identities are shaped by our hardships?