

Urchatz

Contributed by Progressive Jewish Alliance

Source:

Urchatz is the first of two times when we wash our hands during the Seder. This first time, we do so without a blessing. For those who would like, we take a minute to wash our hands.