

Urchatz

Contributed by Michelle Wood

Source: Haggadot.com

This is the first of two hand-washings tonight, and this one doesn't require a blessing.

Washing your hands makes you clean for practical acts like eating, and also makes you clean for spiritual acts such as praying. Just as the priests used to wash their hands before making sacrifices, we wash our hands before the telling of our story.