

Land Acknowledgment

Contributed by jayce koester

Source: Jayce Koester

To open seder, we must acknowledge not only what the Egyptians stole, but also the stolen land under our feet. This seder is complicated by our presence here on Dakota land. Land that was never ceded. Our pursuit of liberation as LGBTQIA+ Jews and allies rings hollow without acknowledging and knowing where and when we stand.