

Karpas

Contributed by Jane Taubenfeld Cohen

Source:

Shutterstock

Karpas are fresh green vegetables – normally parsley – which are placed on the Seder plate. They symbolize the freshness of spring, as well as the harshness and slavery endured by the Hebrews. They are dipped in the salt water before being eaten.