

Seder Place Cards 1/3

Contributed by American Jewish World Service

Source:

On Passover, it's traditional to ask questions. Place a question, dialogue, connection and action for a more just and equitable world. Write the names of your guests on each place card.

Cut on solid lines, fold on dashed lines.

What does freedom mean to you?

[
What
When c

We retell the Passover story in each generation. What do you want the next generation to remember about how you responded to today's challenges?

If you were plate that sy w

The Passover story reminds us that we, too, were once refugees. How can we draw upon our history to help people fleeing their homes today?

The Haggadal for the coming life