

First Handwashing

Contributed by Rabbi Zoë Klein

Source: Rabbi Zoë Klein, Temple Isaiah

Not Just Handwashing

Ask for two volunteers: one to carry a pitcher of water and to pour water over each guest's hands, and one to carry a basin and a towel.

Use ice water to remember people who do not have warm water.

Have everyone take off their bracelets and rings, even wedding bands for the handwashing (or for the whole seder, to be returned when the afikomen is found) to remember those who are still in bondage and live without.