Last night for the First Seder, we told the story of the Exodus with music. Tonight, we are going to mix it up and play a game! This game is called "Things in a Bag." I have put a dozen random objects in this bag. Now that we have already retold the story, we will each take a turn pulling one mystery item out of the bag. You have to connect the item to the Passover story in some way!

For example, what would Moses do with the object? Or, how would Pharaoh, the Egyptians, Aaron, Miriam, or even one of the plagues use the item? If you can't come up with an idea for a character in the Passover story, then think about how the item could be used in the Seder instead.

We'll all take a couple turns!
