

The Four Children

Contributed by Wendy Kleinman

Source: Original

The Haggadah tells us about four types of children. We can imagine these are actual children, or that they are the inner children in us. Their questions are above.

How might we answer each child's questions?

How do you imagine the faces of each type of child to look? Make an appropriate face for each one.