

Food For Thought

Contributed by Haggadot

Source:

FOOD FOR THOUGHT:

We rejoice in our ancestors liberation from slavery in Egypt, but what about all those who are still in need of liberation around the world (and at home) today?

HAGGADOT.COM

With our guests around the table, Passover offers us a perfect place to raise awareness of today's social injustices. For our Seders, the food choices we make matter. The inclusion of contemporary symbols will teach others.

Try a new kind of Social Justice Seder this year and spark conversation about how we will all work to make the world a safer and more liberated place now.

Here's one example of a Social Justice haggadah: <https://www.haggadot.com/haggadah/haggadah-justice>