Now it's time for Urchatz: a chance to wash your hands of your former life, or to clean up after your job at the Blouse Barn or the veterinarian's office - in either case, it's time for a good hand-washing to get the "EW" off your hands.

Don't make a blessing, because, well, what's to bless when you've lost all your money and moved to a tiny town in the middle of nowhere or in a pandemic far away from your family?
