Rachtzah - Time to wash again. This just makes sense, we're about to handle a whole bunch of food with our hands. Pretend you're Johnny Rose filling in at the cafe for Twyla and offering everyone a full combo, even though there's only a combo, which is a cup of soup and half a sandwich. If you want to sing happy birthday or Dayenu (since we forgot to mention that Passover earworm) while you do it, feel free.
