Narrator: We conclude tonight's program with the question, 'Is there life after death?' And here to discuss this question are three dead people. The late Pharaoh Ramses, former ruler of the kingdom of Egypt, circa 1400 BCE; the late Moshe ben Amram, tribal spokesperson and record holder for longest road trip across the wilderness; and putting forward the view of the Powers that Be, the prophet Elijah the Gileadite. Gentlemen, is there life after death or not? (Prolonged silence)

Well there we have it! Three say "No". On next week's program we'll be discussing the question 'Does the state of France have a right to exist?' And until then, goodnight.
