The children are sent out of the room to find the Afikomen. They return, shouting:

Children: An afikomen! An afikomen! An afikomen! We've got an afikomen!: We have found an afikomen, may we eat it?

Father: Eat it! Eat!

Mother: How do you know it is an afikomen?

Children: It looks like one. It has warts on it. And it turned me into a newt!
