

SONG

CSJO: Khad Gadya

Contributed by Congress of Secular Jewish Organization

Source: The Jewish Secular Community Passover Hagada

ALL: Passover is the festival of life. It is the festival of Jewish survival. With this celebration we affirm that there is no force that can destroy our will to live.

Khad Gadya is the symbolic little goat of Israel which others have sought to devour. But, in the end, they themselves have been devoured.

KHAD GADYA

Refrain:

Khad-gad-ya

Khad-gad-ya (2)

1. The kid my father bought for two zuzim (refrain)
2. Then came the cat and ate the kid, etc. (refrain)
3. Then came the dog and bit the cat, etc. (refrain)
4. Then came the stick and beat the dog, etc. (refrain)
5. Then came the fire and burnt the stick, etc. (refrain)
6. Then came the water and quenched the fire, etc. (refrain)
7. Then came the ox and drank the water, etc. (refrain)
8. Then came the butcher that slew the ox, etc. (refrain)